REGULATIONS FOR EXHIBITORS

The LAUGHTON AUTUMN SHOW is open to all forms of steam driven or motor transport, farm machines, models and vintage cycles. Subject to stated entry limits and eligibility of the exhibit.

Date limits apply in the following classes:

Cars
A general date limit of 35 years old. Later cars may be accepted as representative of the marque, but those under 35 years will only be accepted if of exceptional historic interest and at the discretion of the organisers.

Commercial Military, PSV and Tractors
A general date limit of 35 years from the date of construction.

Motor Cycles and Three Wheeler
A general date limit of 35 years old – British built machines up to 25 years old may be included on a representative basis, subject to non-duplication and at the organisers discretion.

LAND ROVER/RANGE ROVERS
A general date limit of 30 years – This class is subject to non-duplication and at the organisers discretion.

Classic Campers (no caravans)
A fixed date of 40 years old and of historic interest.
CONDITION OF CLASS – This class will be at the organisers discretion. All campers must be fully restored and be placed in display (i.e. not in the campsite)

Stationary Engines
This section please note:
All entries will be checked carefully. All engines are to be of good interest to the public. We expect that the majority of the engines will be driving machinery of some type, also engines must be of the water-cooled variety. Other engines must meet a criteria of interest to the public.

Models
Should selection become necessary Preference will be given to accurate scale models of historic transport items.

Scale Steam Vehicles
No children (under 16) to be allowed to operate or drive without a responsible adult.

Other Displays
These will be accepted at the organisers discretion but displays featuring transport, historical or craft items, will receive preference.

Car Clubs and Organisations
Entries to this section will be given a designated area on the Showground depending on size of club. To be entered into section, organisers require that you appear for the duration of the Show (i.e. three day show = three days attendance).

General
It is a condition of our use of the showground that all DOGS must be kept on a lead at all times.
Camping space is limited to the exhibit's owner and immediate family and we cannot guarantee that will be available to all who require it.
All exhibits must be clean, tidy and of a high standard.

THE ORGANISING COMMITTEE RESERVE THE RIGHT OF REFUSAL OF ANY PERSON OR EXHIBIT.

- All exhibit's/vehicles etc must be in their allotted display areas by 10.00am and remain there until 5.00pm each day. No entry after 10.00am all show days. Commemorative Plaques will be available from administration from 5.00pm.
- The organisers would like to point out that the show closes on Sunday 13th Sept at 5.00pm and that all persons and exhibit's are requested to remain on station until that time.
- Persons leaving early will not be given preference at future shows.
